

Control of media should not be in the hands of the few, and it should not be available only to those with lots of money. The fcc has recently been on a course of action which seems to cut out the little person. access to the airwaves should be a right of all citizens of the great U.S.A.

thank you for your time